

Modern Slavery and Human Trafficking Policy Statement

Modern slavery is a crime and a violation of fundamental human rights. It takes various forms, such as slavery, servitude, forced and compulsory labour and human trafficking, all of which have in common the deprivation of a person's liberty by another in order to exploit them for personal or commercial gain.

We are committed to improving our practices to combat slavery and human trafficking.

This statement is made pursuant to section 54(1) of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and constitutes European Wood Products slavery and human trafficking statement for the year 2022

Organisational structure

We are a provider of timber doorsets in the construction industry.

We operate from a single site in the north-west of England.

Our supply chains

Our supply chains include suppliers of timber and timber products, woodworking tools and machinery and supplies, paints and lacquers etc

Our policies on slavery and human trafficking

We recognise the need to negate the risks and are committed to ensuring that there is no modern slavery or human trafficking in our supply chains or in any part of our business and we will monitor this as part of our quality objectives.

Supplier adherence to our values

We have zero tolerance to slavery and human trafficking. To ensure all those in our supply chain comply with our values we have in place a supply chain appointment and monitoring process as part of our quality objectives.

SIGNED:

DATE: 3.5.22